HARLEM RACING.

John Condon was at Harlem yesterday looking as well as at any time for years. He was pleased with the racing outlook and talked cheerily with the presiding judge for an hour. The day was such as only Chicago can furnish, and the crowd was up to the average. The card was a good one and everything passed off pleasantly. The sensation of the day was the defeat of Mary Black, who ran badly. It is thought her marvelous race of Monday (113 pounds up) may have staled her. May W.'s win was an astonishing one considering her long "let up." Enchanter was heavily played by "Kid" Weller and his party, and came mighty near delivering the goods. The track was in splendid condition.

To a perfect start—a remarkable occurrence considering the size of the field—Willie Howard showed in front for the first race, but at once dropped back and never worse than fourth finished sixth. The lead was taken by Arthur McKnight and he led to the last sixteenth from Mazie V and Lucille Bramble (she finished fifth), and having them beaten, looked all over a winner when on the rail came through Red Pirate and quickly passed on, only to be driven out by Shinfane, who, getting off near the rear, ran an excellent race. Arthur McKnight, close up, finished third and the next three (Mazie V fourth) were well toward the goal.

The second race was a good betting one, Oleska being made the favorite at 2 to 1 on the strength of a fine performance in good company at her previous start in Chicago. Streamer, J. M. Murphy's Topgallant colt, was heavily backed at the post, the 4 to 1 posted on some slates being not for sale. Streamer was away absolutely last, although moving, and Monador, Pat Dunne's colt, fared little better. Falomacita ran right off from the others (barring two it was a good start), but was collared by Antiquary at the last eighth. Iris had been third and Harry Nutter fourth nearly all the way. Now Falomacita stopped a trifle and Antiquary got home in front, being brought to the whip by Harry Nutter. Falomacita, third, was just ahead of Iris and the back bunch was led by Revanna, who for the first time lately hereabouts aired the colors of Frank Phillips.

The jockeys were called to the stand as the horses went to the post for the one mile and seventy yards and Colonel Clark was reported to have had the following conversation with J. Reiff, who rode Don Quixote: "Did you ever ride this horse before?" "No, sir," from the boy. "Then go on and do the best you can. Pay no attention to any orders you may have and ride the race to suit yourself." The betting had been heavy, Dr. Sheppard being particularly well supported. To a perfect start Storm King was in front rounding into the backstretch, Fervor and Dr. Sheppard "right there," Charley Christy fourth and Don Quixote fifth. The latter worked himself along so that at the middle of the upper turn, where Storm King laid just in front of the trio behind Don Quixote was as good as the next and was running alongside Fervor and Dr. Sheppard. Charley Christy was beaten but The Devil, laid off at the half, an extraordinary distance for so free running a horse, was coming up rapidly. Turning for home Storm King slightly increased his lead; Dr. Sheppard not yet sent to a ride being second. Here Fervor died so quickly that at the finish he was beaten one hundred yards. Storm King was hustled along by Dr. Sheppard nearing the betting ring, but now on the rail came Don Quixote who had been shot into the most favorable position at the entry to the straight, and finishing strongly he ran home an easy winner. The Devil joined company with Storm King and Dr. Sheppard close in and the

A straggling start found Judge Tarvin off with a bulge and two open lengths to the good, while L. Pillott Jr. was "absolutely." Pearl Barnes got to and passed the leader in the first quarter and Genna coming up, the trio struck the home stretch many lengths ahead of the others. Pearl Barnes soon had enough and the favorite passed the three-sixteenths post four lengths better than Genna, who made a shoot to the outside at the turn. Straightening up, however, she was head and head with Judge Tarvin a furlong out, but Everett, riding with surprisingly good judgment sat still, waiting for Genna to die, which she did, and was beaten easily in a close finish. Oneita ran third, many lengths away, and Goal Runner bringing up the rear was opposite the betting ring.

Now came the speed race of the day, Mary Black being engaged. It was the first appearance here this year of May W., a filly much talked of in her two and three-year-old form, and as to which last spring many conflicting rumors circulated. She was not even second choice in the betting, Eugenia Wickes holding such honor. The scratching of Timemaker deprived the contest of considerable interest, many fancying him about due. May W. won the race by an eyelash from Enchanter, Belle of Memphis being close up. The latter ran by far the best race, as she was practically left at the post. The "crabs," Ironical and Lady Fairmount, against each of which 500 to 1 was laid, were beaten in the first ten strides. Enchanter delayed the start by refusing to join his horses, and at the breakaways Mary Black ran the farthest. Enchanter broke once and then he, with Belle of Memphis and Mary Black, covered a sixteenth. When the flag went down Enchanter led, Mary Black second, May W. third. They ran so in close order to the home stretch, Eugenia Wickes fourth, Belle of Memphis, having gained much ground, being within striking distance. Mary Black stopped soon after turning for home, as did Eugenia Wickes, and they finished together several lengths worse than Belle of Memphis. Enchanter led until the last few strides, as Rutter, on May W., waited patiently for the final rush. Beauchamp, on the other, was working for dear life. Just at the right moment Rutter swung his whip, and when it hit the filly (said to be a roarer) she responded and won in the most exciting finish of the season.

Barataria won the last race coming from the ruck at the head of the home stretch—where the leaders, swinging very wide, gave Gray his chance to get through—and winning in a big gallop from Don Orsino. Greyhurst was third after making the running all the way with Serena and Organ Pilot. Uarda finished close up to the third horse. Idle Hour showed some speed up the back stretch. Connie Lee was last away from the post and Judge Steadman had no chance.

Eugene Carter, the billiardist, who is to perform in Chicago this season, arrived in town yesterday. His experience abroad with the horses is best told by himself. "Yes, I saw 'em run. They had me in what they call the 'Birdcage' at Newmarket and I wish they'd kept me there. For 'abroad' (as they say) is of all places the spot to get the 'con' talk that will separate a man from his money. In this country I used to go light on the horses, but in England and France they got me to plunge. There they tell you of how this or that horse is bred away back from the days of Queen Anne, and who could help betting on such a pedigree. It was in those days, so I heard, that they mixed up some Spanish blood with their stock. I guess I lost my coin

Winner—Ch. g. by Blue Eyes—Missive.
Start bad. Won driving. Marsian, lightly weighted and lucky, closed strong and is very good. Momentum lost the race through bearing in on the rail all through the stretch. He is a bad horse in big fields on that account. Lambent was exhausted in making the pace. She ran a grand race and was pinned in on the rail the last sixteenth. Roysterer, off very badly closed a big gap and ran a fine, game race. Orion had a stormy passage and was shut off and pocketed repeatedly the last quarter. Lord Zeni is not good apparently. General Maceo showed a great burst of speed. Blue Devil is best in mud but lost all chance at the start. He ran well. Miss Miriam had no chance at the start.
Scratched—Blarneystone, 118; Woodranger, 114.
Overweights—Tanis, 2 pounds.
Marsian, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Momentum, place, 5 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Lambent, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. h. by Prince Royal—Merry Nell.
Start fair. Won handily. Merry Prince was easily the best. He was off slowly and pocketed at a critical point, but closed very gamely. Mount Washington ran exceptionally well for him and this race makes him out to be at his best. Merlin is in good condition, but is of very low class. So is Filament. Kitefoot is not good at present.
Overweights—Mount Washington, 2 pounds; Filament, 1; Kitefoot, 1.
Merry Prince, place, 1 to 3. Mount Washington, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Merlin, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Modred—Blithesome.
Start straggling. Won easily. Merry Heart was the best and came away at the end resolutely. The Burlington Route was poorly handled at the end, but showed unmistakably to have been overestimated. Sister Fox came again after being apparently beaten. Lady Exile closed throughout and finished strong, but had a stormy passage. Sol, off badly and very unlucky, closed like a whirlwind. He is a fine looker and possibly prefers a route. Jerid is a good looker and ran well, but succumbed at the end and was probably short. Tophet was a good horse, but got an inferior ride. Effie Ainsie was sore in her preliminary. The others were out of it from the start.
Scratched—Meddlesome, 102.
Overweights—Merry Heart, 5 pounds; Tophet, 2; Cavalleria, 2; Sir Christopher, 1; Alice Nise, 4.
Merry Heart, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. The Burlington Route, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Sister Fox, show, 6 to 5.

HARLEM RACING.

on some bred that way. I know they quit mighty quick, and maybe it was 'ringer' blood that did it, just as some shark furnished Cervera sawdust bombshells. Maybe when billiards play out, I can be a horse reporter like some other shortstops, for I know all about the Godolphin Arabian Eclipse, Lottery, Hermit and a whole lot more. It was over in France, however, where they trimmed me good. When at first I lost, they told me it was because I couldn't speak French, so I learned the tongue. Then I got staked to more stable secrets than would do for three hundred mystery stories, (that's a good game, I see, maybe I could get some money at that) and everyone cost me many a louis d'or. Well, I blew in at one thing or another some fifty thousand dollars—trying to make money—and here I am, home again. You know me!!

The Harlem race crowd was looking for the meanest man on earth with the purpose of hanging an individual who gave the blind program boy a three-cent piece instead of a dime. Barney Schreiber was very sore about the Judge Tarvin start. Genna would certainly have won if away on even terms.
Nineteen regular and two field books "cut in" for one day.
Serena broke down in the last race.

Start good. Won cleverly. Manuel is a rare good looker and improves with each race. He got away slowly and closed like a whirlwind in the stretch. At that the race was run exactly to suit him. Hime time finished strong. He showed both speed and gameness, and ran a fine race with an ill judged ride. The Kentuckian was a marvel of speed today. He is in grand form and might have won if saved the first part. Kentucky Colonel's weight anchored him. He is good and ran finely. La Penitente got a badly judged ride. Matanza is probably not fit. She stopped to a walk after going three-eighths. Onondaga's Pride is very ordinary and in bad form.
Scratched—Dr. Eichberg, 117; Helen Thomas, 107; Ornamental, 107.
Corrected weights—Matanza, 114.
Overweights—Onondaga's Pride, 2 pounds.
Manuel, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Hime time, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. The Kentuckian, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. c. by Tournament—Hedge Rose.
Start bad. Won easily. Charley Rose was easily the best, but it was a bad race and a bad lot of horses. His Majesty ran well and is a good looker. He appeared to be beaten and then came again. Emma Nora is probably not up to this distance. The others are very bad, excepting perhaps Slasher, who nigh lost all chance by falling at the start. He ran well. Julius Caesar will not do. Fairy Dale was sore in her preliminary.
Charley Rose, place, 2 to 1; show, 8 to 5. His Majesty, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Br. c. by Hanover—Black Maria.
Start straggling. Won handily. Handcuff was in a bad pocket to the stretch, but closed strong and gamely. He is much improved and a good looker. Favonius was cut loose today after running for the dead line five straight times. He is a grand looker and is promising and will do to watch. Tyran showed surprisingly well for him. Winter ran well, but her race stamps her as only ordinary. She got a strong and lucky ride. The others are common, but had no chance at the start. Rose O'Lee is a quitter. So is Loiter.
Scratched—Lowna, 99.
Overweights—Tyran, 4 pounds; Rose O'Lee, 1; Judge Magee, 1; Kilarma, 4.

Winner—Ch. g. by Onoko—Sophronia.
Start good. Won easily. Olindo outclassed his field, was well handled and is at his best. Governor Budd is in remarkable form for him. He closed very strong at the end and was never as good as now. Diver is a good looker and was short. He is promising and fenced admirably. Elcid looks like a wreck. Equerry was under a drive early and appears to be out of form.
Governor Budd, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Diver, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pirate of Penzance—Ray B.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second, third and fourth driving also. Red Pirate was the best. He was nicely handled too, getting off close to the rail and staying there. Hothersall was lucky in not getting shut off on the stretch turn. This is how he won the race. Those in front turned wide and the Pirate saved a lot of ground by skinning the rails. Shinfane did well but stopped right on the end. Arthur McKnight got away well on his stride and showed a lot of speed. He, too, was tiring badly. The comment applies to Mazie V. Considering the size of the field there was little or no bumping or interference during the race. The only horse having had luck was Willie Howard, he being shut off on the far turn.

Scratched—Capicum, 103.

Overweights—Foxnette, 3 pounds; Pella B., 3; Willie Howard, 3.

Red Pirate, place, 9 to 5; show, even. Shinfane, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Arthur McKnight, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. c. by Dandie Dimont—Gyda.

Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly; the next three were doing their best. Antiquary seems to be a good colt. He was under pressure on the turn and responded gamely. He was well ridden, getting away nicely and taking the short route. Harry Nutter was hard ridden all the way and closed a lot of ground the last three furlongs. Falomacita seems fainthearted. Still it was no wonder she stopped under the weak ride she got at the end. Watch Revanna. He was bumped and jostled and had all the bad luck. Oleska and Streamer were both beaten at the start. They were far back in bad positions with no possible chance to get up. Iris is fast, but seems to possess little or no staying qualities. Prince McClurg's race was far below the notch.

Scratched—Old Fox, 103; Andes, 103.

Overweights—Monadour, 2 pounds; Iris, 3.

Antiquary, place, 5 to 1; show, 2½ to 1. Harry Nutter, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Falomacita, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxus—Ethie.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end. The next three were under terrific pressure. As the race was run Don Quixote showed to be much the best. He was badly outrun the first part of it but finished like a lion. Reiff practically stole the race. He skinned the rails on the stretch turn and squeezed between them and Dr. Sheppard before Sloan, on the latter, knew what had happened. At that point Dr. Sheppard seemed to be winning and the boy on him evidently thought Storm King was the one he had to beat and paid strict attention to him. It was a cracking good race from a time standpoint. The last mile was run in 1:39½. The Devil was badly shut off passing the stand the first time. Rose was obliged to pull him up and go around the field. Taking this and a bad ride into consideration his race was away above the average. Fervor was pinched out on the stretch turn and whatever chances he had were ruined there. He seemed beaten though at that point. Storm King set a good pace and hung on gamely. He is a nice horse. Before the race the judge called all the boys up and gave them instructions to do their best to win.

Scratched—Found, 97; Her Favor, 92.

Don Quixote, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Storm King, place, 3 to 1; show, even. Dr. Sheppard, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Lord Hartington—Eurie.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third with something left at the end. This was one of the best finishes ever seen on the track. Everett's powerful ride at the end was brilliant. He could have won on either horse. Tarvin seemed beaten at the sixteenth pole, but the boy fairly lifted him home. He is a fast colt, but none too game, and when Genna collared him in the stretch he wanted to lie down. The latter ran a nice race and should have won. There was a lot of speed the first part of the journey. Pearl Barnes, breaking from behind, went to the front like a flash. She stopped, too, in the same manner after going about half a mile. Oneita made up a lot of ground the last three furlongs. There was no contest outside of the first two.

Scratched—Elizabeth R, 97; Espionage, 107; Flavius, 112.

Overweights—L. Pillott Jr, 2 pounds.

Judge Tarvin, place, 1 to 2. Genna, place, 7 to 10. Oneita, show, 4 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Eagle Plume—Froila.

Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won driving to the limit. May W was a good filly today. She has had a long illness, but was evidently cherry ripe and was heavily played. Rutter rode her to perfection. She is as game as a pebble and stood a strong drive at the end like an aristocrat. It looked on the turn as though Enchanter would surely beat her, but he weakened just a trifle. The pace set by him was a terrific one and enough to stop any horse. It had that effect on Black and she went all to pieces the last eighth. Belle of Memphis is a hard luck filly. She left the post lunging and really never got on her stride until half the journey was over. Eugenia Wickes was clearly outrun. Still, it was a fast lot and her race was not so bad. Scratched—Ferroll, 95; St. Alfonsos D, 98; Timemaker, 112; King Bermuda, 95. May W, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Enchanter, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Belle of Memphis, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Lisbon—Aala Lala.

Post 6 minutes. Start excellent. Won easily; second driving; third and fourth were doing their best. Barataria was a good horse and only had to gallop all the way. Don Orsino had very hard luck. He was shut off at least a half dozen times and was perhaps the best. Greyhurst showed speed and ran a fair sort of race. It looks as though Uarda is of little or no account. She was well ridden and had no excuses. Idle Hour flattered himself. He was close up all of the way. Jack of Hearts suffered from a bad ride.

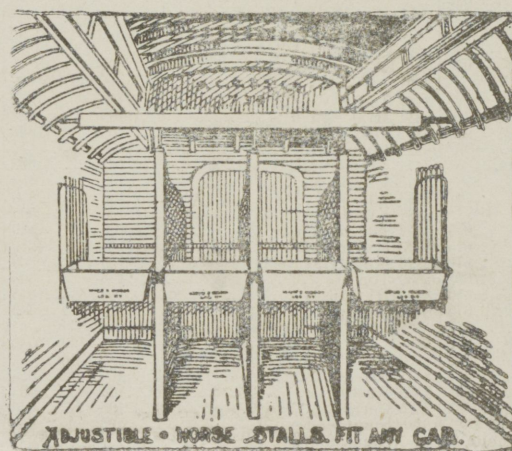

Scratched—Pete Kitchen, 97; Branch, 87; Globe II., 91; Second Chance, 97; Oelian, 90; Paul Griggs, 106; Prince of India, 110.

Overweights—Don Orsino, 3½ pounds; Serena, 2; Jack of Hearts, 3; Croesus, 3; Chauncey Fisher, 3; Star and Crescent, 5; Uarda, 3½.

Barataria, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Don Orsino, place, 7 to 10. Greyhurst, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—B. f. by Major Domo—Springtime.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard and were staggering. Annie Oldfield lacked her usual speed. She probably has had too much of it and needs a let up. Domozetta was the best ridden. Spinnaker was tiring at the end. Esther R. was off badly and had no chance. Sweet Cream ran the best race.

Overweights—Ennemia, 5 pounds.
Domozetta, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Spinnaker, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Sweet Cream show, 3 to 1.

8598 SECOND RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Simple Simon—Birdie.
Post 23 minutes. Start good. Won handily. The next three were driving hard. Barton's race was pounds above par. He is a sulker and likes a distance. Violet Parsons' best distance is six furlongs. Maggie S. in stopping, bumped Albertvale and Britton had to take him up. Domsie came strong at the finish and will soon do. Suydam was short.
Barton, place, 12 to 1; show, 6 to 1. Albertvale, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Domsie, show, 2 to 1.
